

CONNECTICUT'S HOUSING STABILITY CONTINUUM

The housing stability continuum includes the range of housing experiences and associated housing types in Connecticut.

UNHOUSED

TEMPORARILY HOUSED

PERMANENTLY HOUSED

Unsheltered

Emergency Shelter

Unstable

Less Stable

More Stable

Stable

Sleeping in a place not meant for human habitation, including: a car, park or sidewalk, campground, train station, abandoned building, hallway of an apartment or hotel.

Staying in emergency accommodations for individuals or families experiencing a housing or personal crisis, including homeless shelters or domestic violence shelters.

Staying in temporary accommodations in no-cost or low-cost places, including: motels, hotels, boarding homes; staying with family or friends in doubled-up / overcrowded housing; experiencing frequent or forced moves.

Living in time-limited housing that may or may not include supportive services, including: halfway housing, sober housing, respite housing, or receiving short-term rental assistance or eviction prevention assistance

Living in non time-limited housing and paying more than 30% of income on housing costs and/or living in unsafe or unhealthy housing or in economically distressed neighborhoods, including:

- private market rental
- mobile homeownership
- homeownership

Living in non time-limited housing and paying less than 30% of income on housing costs and living in safe, healthy housing in thriving neighborhoods, including:

- subsidized rental
- subsidized rental with services (supportive housing)
- private market rental
- mobile homeownership
- homeownership