The housing stability continuum includes the range of housing experiences and associated housing types in Connecticut.

UNHOUSED
- Unsheltered
  - Sleeping in a place not meant for human habitation, including: a car, park or sidewalk, campground, train station, abandoned building, hallway of an apartment or hotel.

TEMPORARILY HOUSED
- Emergency Shelter
  - Staying in emergency accommodations for individuals or families experiencing a housing or personal crisis, including homeless shelters or domestic violence shelters.

PERMANENTLY HOUSED
- Unstable
  - Staying in temporary accommodations in no-cost or low-cost places, including: motels, hotels, boarding homes; staying with family or friends in doubled-up / overcrowded housing; experiencing frequent or forced moves.
- Less Stable
  - Living in time-limited housing that may or may not include supportive services, including: halfway housing, sober housing, respite housing, or receiving short-term rental assistance or eviction prevention assistance.
- More Stable
  - Living in non time-limited housing and paying more than 30% of income on housing costs and/or living in unsafe or unhealthy housing or in economically distressed neighborhoods, including:
    - private market rental
    - mobile homeownership
    - homeownership
- Stable
  - Living in non time-limited housing and paying less than 30% of income on housing costs and living in safe, healthy housing in thriving neighborhoods, including:
    - subsidized rental
    - subsidized rental with services (supportive housing)
    - private market rental
    - mobile homeownership
    - homeownership

OCTOBER 2023